

I respectfully submit to you that we as a free society should be entitled to choose the radio stations we want to listen to! Especially when we pay for the service. It in no way infringes on anyone else, or costs anyone. So I feel our service that we pay for should be left alone for the subscribers to enjoy!

Sincerely,
Brenda Wills